O'Neills footballs and O'Neillsliotars have always been associated with gaelic football and hurling. O'Neills jerseys are part of the GAA and Gaelic Games since our forefathers established O'Neills, founded in 1918 to manufacture gaelic footballs and sliotars.

Since then O'Neills has been a proud supplier of GAA jerseys, GAA training gear, and GAA Leisurewear to Gaelic Clubs and county teams as well as All Stars, and International Rules teams. O'Neills gear is now one of many GAA fixtures, along with Croke Park, Semple Stadium in Thurles, the home of hurling, Hayes Hotel where the GAA was founded in 1884 Kilkenny hurling, Kerry football and the All Ireland Final.
